An Apostolate of St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church

Watch the sunrise from the privacy of your own porch. Feel the warm Potomac breeze as you lay in your comfortable bed. Relax on the peaceful beach, just a 2 minute walk from your front door.

St. Elizabeth's cottage, on the grounds of St. Elizabeth of Hungary Catholic Church, is one of the newest additions to the lovely beach town of Colonial Beach, Virginia. Perfect for a couple or for the whole family needing to escape to a peaceful stop with enough activities to keep you busy.

Renovated in the summer of 2013, the charming cottage has room for the whole family with 2 full bedrooms, plus a pullout sleeper. The cottage boasts of a fully equipped kitchen, nice bathroom, a comfortable living room with TV & plenty of space for entertaining, and as a bonus a washer and dryer to keep those beach towels clean! Whether you sit on the front porch with a lovely view of the Church gardens and the Potomac River or relax on the back porch and enjoy your private yard, your stay will be a happy one.
